

THE FEDERATION of INTERNATIONAL TOUCH

Presents the

HISTORY
of
HONG KONG TEST MATCHES
2014 - 2018

Hong Kong commenced their International playing career on 20th December 2014 when a team of Mixed players travelled from China to play in a two test series sanction by the Federation

After two games the score were 7-4 for each country with one win each. The reverse set of games was played on 10th January 2015 in China where Hong Kong proved just a better team with two close wins thus winning the inaugural ANZ Test Series.

Attached is the results of test matches played by Hong Kong against other FIT Members. The first official match is recorded as a win to Hong Kong and set the stage for future international matches against Member Countries.

After the initial series against China, Hong Kong have participated in Tests against Japan, China and the Philippines recoding wins in all divisions against the three countries making them a dominant force in the Region.

Their strength in Touch will only be tested at the 2019 World Cup in Malaysia when they will be up against other FIT counties and the full force of Touch Japan
